Our Story

Starting with a small 12 seater restaurant, we focused all our energy on our food.

At Omoté, we've reimagined traditionally prepared Japanese Food through injecting well loved comfort food elements with fusion flavors from around the region.

Our signature flavors have amassed a loyal, growing following from foodies all across the region one bowl at a time. Thus, allowing us to expand to our ever growing customer base.

Our Competitive Edge

We target the Gen Z and Millennial crowds, who are the bulk of the current work force.

Omoté's Brand Image has grown with our mastery of serving authentic Japanese food with a modern take tailored to our customers palates.

Over the years, we have built a strong presence and following on social media.

The Japanese food market is ever growing in popularity, it is estimated to grow five-fold by 2030.

Collaborative Partnership

We take pride in ensuring that our tried and proven strategies will unlock new potentials to your market success.
